Dear Officials:

The Westside Regional Alliance of Councils is a regional alliance that considers and advises on the interests of the entire Westside of Los Angeles, with Member councils representing communities from Westchester to Pacific Palisades along the coast, and from Venice on the west to Brentwood and other communities east of the 405. WRAC was created in 2009 with 12 member councils and today represents 14 councils and 500,000 residents.

Many Westside Los Angeles Neighborhood and Community Councils have expressed concerns about the "gut and amend" bills, which eliminate transparency and public participation. As a result, the Westside Regional Alliance of Councils has passed, by a majority of voting councils in our alliance, the following motion:

The Westside Regional Alliance of Councils recommends the following reform: Eliminate the "gut and amend" bill process and request the
